Arches, Canyonlands, America's most scenic train ride through the Colorado Rockies and Pikes Peak & the Royal Gorge

Rarely does one holiday offer the visual splendor this one does beginning with visits to Arches and Canyonlands National Parks (along with a visit to lesser-known Dead Horse State Park which is a hidden jewel) with complete touring of each park and this is after two indulgent nights at the superlative Little America Hotel in Salt Lake City. After Arches & Canyonlands, we board, right in Moab, the luxurious Rocky Mountaineer train for a two-day journey, traveling in daylight hours only, to Denver. In addition to this fine train, our guests enjoy an overnight stay en route in historic Glenwood Springs. This train trip is legendary, traveling along the Colorado River and through Glenwood Canyon and through the Rockies in supreme comfort in big-windowed cars and every creature comfort onboard. Upon arrival in Denver, we transfer to lovely Colorado Springs for a three-night stay where more stunning vistas await, from the spectacular Garden of the Gods to the famed Pikes Peak Cog Railway to the top of Pikes Peak. We also visit the impressive US Air Force Academy and enjoy a trip through the Royal Gorge over the Royal Gorge Railroad. With fine hotels, great dining, transportation, all transfers and complete sightseeing, this is one of our nicest western holidays ever. All Aboard!

ARCHES NATIONAL PARK

DEAD HORSE STATE PARK

GARDEN OF THE GODS

DAY TO DAY ITINARY:

Day 1 Salt Lake City

There are few hotels in America our guests enjoy more than the Little America in Salt Lake City and happily, we have two luxurious nights here. Tonight is a casual welcome reception, a nice way to meet your fellow travelers. R

Day 2 Salt Lake City

After breakfast, we depart for the Heber Valley Railroad along Deer Creek reservoir and later today, we return to Salt Lake City with a visit to Temple Square before our welcome dinner. A second night at the Little America Hotel B D

Day 3 Moab, Canyonlands & Dead Horse State Park

A great day as we travel south and explore the first great National Park this afternoon, Canyonlands followed by a visit to the great 'sleeper' of Utah parks, Dead Horse State Park. Canyonlands is astonishing, a vast colorful landscape eroded by the Colorado River into countless canyons, mesas and buttes. We have left tonight at leisure B

Day 4 Moab & Arches

This morning we visit Arches National Park with the greatest concentration of natural arches in the world with over 200 amazing formations. We tour this in the morning for the best light and you will be in awe. After lunch, we board the Rocky Mountaineer train right in Moab and travel east over the Union Pacific Railroad past the soaring cliffs and hoodoos of Utah and Western Colorado. Later this afternoon, we arrive in Glenwood Springs for an overnight stay at the historic Hotel Colorado for an overnight stay in this lovely setting. B L

Day 5 Rocky Mountaineer & Colorado Springs

A glorious day awaits today as we spend all day in the Colorado Rockies traveling through Ruby Canyon, Glenwood Canyon, Moffat Tunnel and Winter Park before descending the Front Range of the Rockies into Denver. Many travelers believe this the most scenic of train rides in America and you will probably soon agree. Upon arrival in Denver a short transfer takes us to Colorado Springs where the luxury of a three-night deluxe hotel stay awaits. B L D

Day 6 Colorado Springs

After breakfast we depart for the US Air Force Academy with its renowned architecture and exhibits before a midday visit to the famed Garden of the Gods. You will want to have your camera handy and this afternoon we feature a special highlight, a trip through the Royal Gorge aboard the Royal Gorge Railroad, a spellbinding journey alongside the Arkansas River. The evening is free to enjoy downtown Colorado Springs. B L

Day 7 Colorado Springs & Pikes Peak

Saving the best for last, this morning we board the storied Pikes Peak Cog Railway to the top of Pikes Peak for a view so stunning it inspired Kathy Lee Bates to write what became the opening lines of the song 'America the Beautiful'. Later today, we visit the charming mining town of Manitou Springs with plenty of free time before returning to Colorado Springs for a final night and our farewell dinner. B D

Day 8 Denver

After breakfast a short transfer to Denver with stops at hotels and Union Station before continuing onto the airport. Guests may also extend their stay in Denver taking advantage of our special hotel rates. B
